How children are participating

Shows use comedy, magic tricks and role play to create wonder, enthusiasm, and engagement around the important learning topics and outcomes.

VEYLDF Learning Outcomes

OUTCOME 1: IDENTITY

Children have a strong sense of identity when they share aspects of their culture with other children and educators and see that reflected in the characters in the show.

OUTCOME 2: COMMUNITY

Children are connected with and contribute to their world when they cooperate with others and negotiate roles and relationships, by role playing parts of the story.

OUTCOME 3: WELLBEING

Children have a strong sense of wellbeing when they engage in variety of rich and meaningful inquiry-based experiences by learning and having awareness of healthy lifestyles and good nutrition represented in the show.

OUTCOME 4: LEARNING

Children are confident and involved learners when they explore ideas and theories using imagination, creativity and play, and participate in decision making in the shows script.

OUTCOME 5: COMMUNICATION

Children are effective communicators when they use role play, props, singing and dress ups to share and project meaning to the story, by actively participating in the show.

When Charlie SillyPants opens the most AMAZING book in all of Magicland "The Book of SillyPants" there is a "HUGE" problem, the pages are blank!!! The "Hairy Fairy" however has a great solution, the children can fix it! With creativity, imagination and lots of Magic, Charlie SillyPants and the children will create their own story! Will there be Dinosaurs? Fairies? Aliens? Flying Chickawawa's? What will fill the AMAZING "Book of SillyPants"???

LEARNING THROUGH LAUGHTER

Thank you for the extremely funny, thoroughly engaging and thoughtful shows you performed at our centre in the past weeks. Not only did it have the children laughing but more importantly they are still talking about it. All of your performances reflected the Early Years Learning Framework and were very educational. Every child participated in all facets of singing, dancing and acting and your ability to listen and respect their questions was impressive. I would highly recommend these shows to anyone in early learning.
